THREATENED TROUBLE.—Governor Pierpont, of Virginia, at the request of a public meeting held in Matthews county, has appointed an officer to organize a militia force in that county, in consequence of the threats of the negroes to get up an insurrection. The Norfolk Virginian says:

"It has been ascertained that the negroes are receiving ammunition and buying arms wherever they can procure them. They are uttering serious threats. General Terry, it is said, is thoroughly aroused to the importance of taking prompt action, as he has received convincing proof that a spirit of insubordination exists among the freedmen in other portions of the State. We learn, also, that this spirit has its origin on the peninsula, where the freedmen are congregated in vast numbers. The condition of the farmers in Matthews county is identical with that which prevails in other portions of the State—they are unable to employ labor among the freedmen, who refuse to hire themselves by the year."

General Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, on Saturday issued a circular applicable to those of the Southern people whose property has been restored to them, in which he states that numerous cases have been reported of the summary expulsion of freedmen and refugees from their tenements on the plantations thus restored, and orders that hereafter all officers and agents of the Bureau will prevent the recurrence of such ejections in future. In cases of doubt the Assistant Commissioner of the State is directed to forward his opinion to the Commissioner of the Bureau before any order of restoration is issued.

We understand that the constitutionality of the test-oath, so far as it affects the members of the legal profession in their right to admission and appearance at the bar, will be brought before the Supreme Court of the United States at an early day in the session. This question was argued some weeks since by Francis L. Smith before Judge Underwood, of the District Court of Virginia, who still holds the question under advisement.

A Philadelphia paper says:—The ladies are rebelling against the winter fashion for bonnets. The principal of a wholesale millinery house informs us that his customers never purchased "bonnet frames" with equal reluctance. The buggy top pattern requires a large amount of material, and makes a very small show for it. Moreover, the show, when it is made, is anything but graceful.

It is stated that the Treasury has now on hand in coin $41,718,000, in currency $30,192,000. There is at present outstanding $5,545,000 of old certificates, $50,316,000 of new certificates; and $51,000,000 of coin certificates. In the War and Navy Departments there is a reduction of the expenditures of over $11,000,000 in November, as compared with those of November, 1864.

A party of negroes from plantations near Mobile, armed with rifles and swords, lately made an attack on the white men of the neighboring farms. The assault was repulsed. The leader of the negroes was killed—the others escaped, leaving their weapons behind.

Colonel Martin, lately in the Confederate States service, was arrested at Louisville last week and sent on to New York in irons. He is charged with being an accomplice in the attempt to burn hotels in New York during the war.

Dr. Lushington, Judge of the English admiralty Court, is eighty-three years of age, and is said to be still in excellent health, and quite equal to the discharge of his duties.

It is stated that the cholera has made its appearance at Gaudalope, one of the French West India Islands.

Gen. Kilpatrick and Howard, Secretary Harker and Fred Douglass are among the persons who are announced to deliver lectures at Portland, Maine, during the coming winter.

In the Senate of North Carolina, on Saturday last, the constitutional amendment was passed with but one dissenting voice.

Of the prisoners lately in the Old Capitol prison, Captain Winder has been sent to Richmond, Mayor Lee to Raleigh, and Captain Duncan to Savannah, where they are to be tried by courts martial.
